

Calvary Women's Services' Donor Policy

Calvary Women's Services is dedicated to protecting and maintaining the privacy of our donors.

We will not sell, share, or trade our donors' names or personal information with any other entity, nor send physical mailing to our donors on behalf of other organizations. This policy applies to all information received by Calvary Women's Services, both online and offline, including electronic, written, and oral communications.

All access to donors' financial information is limited strictly to the professional services and staff dedicated to processing gifts. These services are all reputable and have strong security measures in place.

To the extent any donations are processed through a third-party service provider, our donors' information will only be used for purposes necessary to process the donation. We do not store, nor can we access, any data that donors provide to those services (i.e. credit card information or bank account numbers).

We may occasionally update this Privacy Policy. When we do, we will provide and/or revise a "last updated" date at the bottom of the Privacy Policy. For material changes to this Privacy Policy, we will notify you by attempting to contact you if we have your email address. We will not materially alter the use of your personal information without contacting you directly and seeking your affirmative consent.
